Market Auctions Inc Hosted Charity Auction Painting to Feed Local Families

WPTV anchor Ashleigh Walters donated painting sold with a winning bid of $11,000.

(Palm Beach, FL – December 17, 2020) — The Annual Holiday Sale for Market Auctions Inc. was held earlier this month on Wednesday, December 2nd and wrapped up with numerous noteworthy sales ending the year on a high note. Over 300 different lots consisted of a wide variety of works included American art, bronzes, French furniture, Asian antiques, glass, contemporary art, estate jewelry, European silver and much more.

Amongst the most noteworthy sales was Lot #1. Market Auctions Inc. teamed up with WPTV anchor and artist Ashleigh Walters to auction a one-of-a-kind painting to benefit local families through the WPTV Food for Families drive during last month's Annual Holiday Auction. The 36-by-36-inch acrylic painting depicting shelves of a Publix grocery store in the orange juice section sold with a winning bid of $11,000. Market Auctions Inc. waived fees and matched the highest bid with a donation of $1,500. The total amount, $12,500, will be donated to WPTV Food for Families.

Loyal WPTV viewers from Palm Beach County Jim and Deb Grimwade won the painting. They stated how incredibly grateful for the efforts being made to feed our neighbors, and they are very happy to help the community. They bid on the painting right from the start, and carried it through all 19 bids, until they won it at $11,000. As promised, Walters delivered the painting to the bidders personally.

Bids continued at a substantial pace throughout the evening with many important sales occurring online through Live Auctioneers and Invaluable platforms.
